

2008 Fun Academy
Call for Presentations
Las Vegas Convention Center
Las Vegas, Nevada
September 7-12, 2008

We're searching for presenters willing to share their expertise!
Bring your ideas and experience to light in a respected industry forum.

What is Fun Academy?

FUN ACADEMY is the leader in cutting edge, in-depth educational programming, focused exclusively on the operation and development of entertainment facilities including family/location-based/urban entertainment and other recreational facilities.

What are we Looking for?

FUN ACADEMY is looking for articulate and successful entertainment facility owners, operators, and experts in business and management to share ideas with our industry. Presentations that are commercial or self-promoting in nature will not be considered.

How will Speakers be Selected?

Speaker selection for the conference will be based on the quality of the speaker and presentation, how well it matches the needs of IALEI members and others in the entertainment industry, level of materials, and any previous speaker evaluations.

What will Speakers Receive?

Speakers selected to present at the 2008 Fun Academy in Las Vegas will receive free registration so you can attend all programming and social events during the conference. Most importantly you will have the opportunity to educate the industries most dedicated professionals and receive recognition in the industry as an expert in your field.

Speaker Requirements

Speakers must have a demonstrated knowledge of the subject matter and have received positive evaluations at previous engagements. Speakers with limited prior presentation experience are also encouraged to submit as we are always looking for new ideas. If you have never presented before we may be able to match or partner you with an experienced presenter.

How to Apply

Read submission requirements carefully, as some requirements have changed from previous "Calls." Submit the completed application by Friday, November 16, 2007.
